FOOTBALL

Junior Quarterback Jim Siewe rolls out to his left during the Homecoming Game against Lima Central Catholic. Alternating the quarterbacking duties with Senior Mike O'Brien, Siewe proved to be an able passer and his running was so impressive that Head Coach Ed Regan occasionally utilized him as a halfback.

Senior Quarterback Mike O'Brien scrambles out of the pocket and looks for running room downfield.

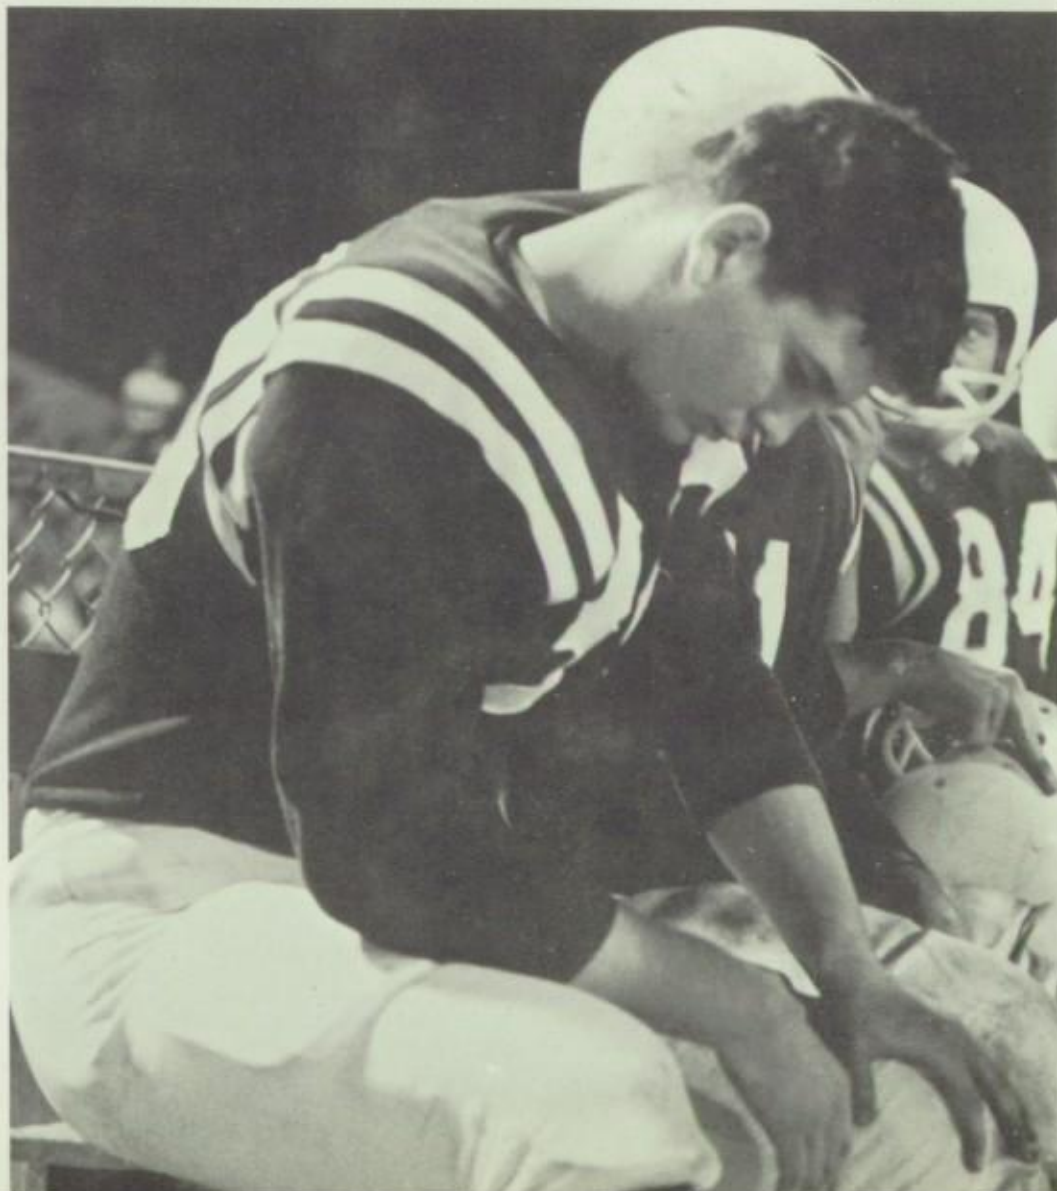

Flanked by Jim Fiala, Chaminade's defensive coach, Hank Schneider surveys the, as yet, undecided battle with Fairmont West.

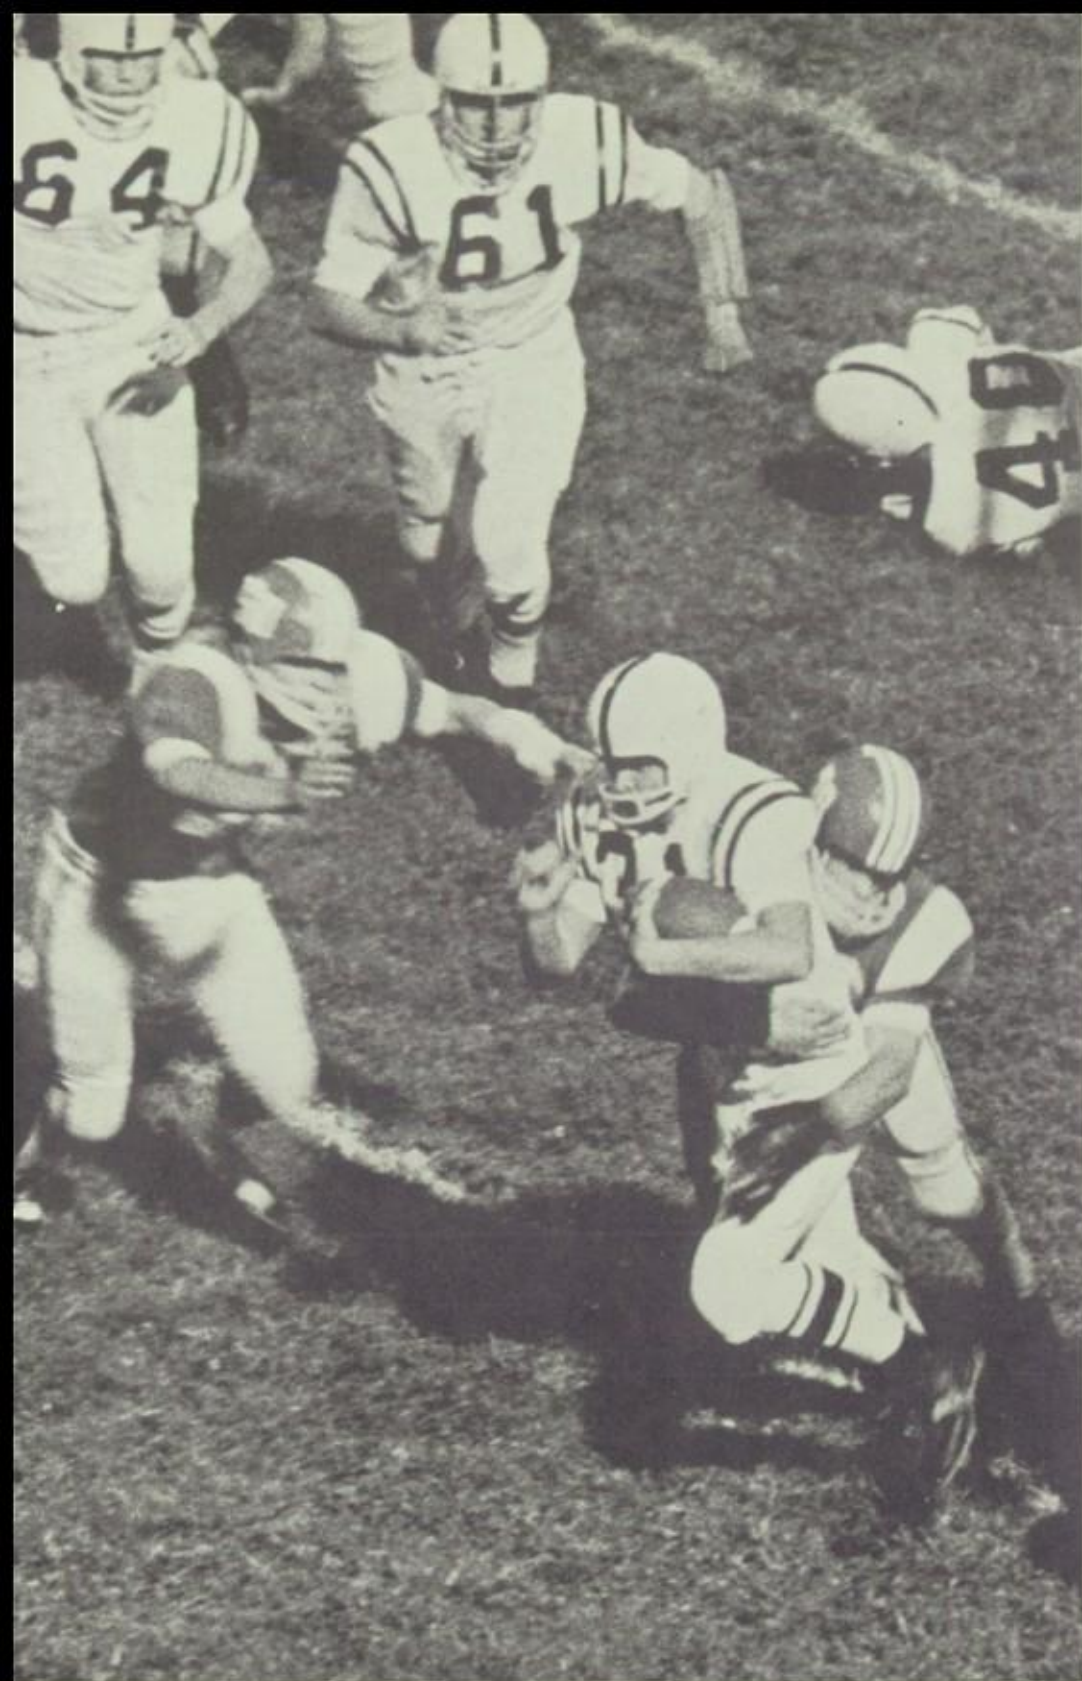

Behind the somewhat unorthodox blocking of Jim Fiala, Bob Madden displays the form that netted him a spot on the Southern Ohio Prep All-Star team. Time after time, a run just such as this by the offensive workhorse was directly responsible for an Eagle touchdown.

Unable to watch the action on the field, Mike O'Brien quietly endures the final seconds of a tight 6-0 loss to the Colonel White Cougars.

Junior Quarterback Jim Siewe brought down from behind by a Lima Central tackler.

Scowling throughout a 33-0 victory is Freshman Coach Alex DiNino.

Offensive tackle George Freiburger and Coach Glenn Dilhoff express concern for the Eagles' chances of squeezing out a victory against Troy.

Just goes to show what can happen when a few seniors and five thousand napkins get together after school.

Chaminade honors Tom Frericks, the former mentor of the basketball team.

HOMECOMING

Jim Hoke, Rosemary Gray and Dennis Goeke carefully inspect the unusual freshman entry in the float contest.

The Senior Class receives the alumni award from Mr. Paul Lee, for their outstanding endeavor in napkin stuffing.

CROSS

Led by the running of Chuck Vehorn (above) and Mickey Kuntz (upper right), the Eagles Cross Country team won the District Championship and the state runner-up position, both for the second consecutive year. Vehorn finished no worse than third throughout the season, and aided by Mick Kuntz, who consistently placed directly behind him, with solid support from the rest of the team, Chuck brought the Eagles state-wide acclaim.

COUNTRY

By infusing his own great competitive spirit into his team, Brother John Gilfether has earned Chaminade a pair of consecutive state runner-up places.

Sodalists worked this year to establish among the students a greater awareness of social responsibility.

Sodality Council Members (left to right): Gary Orf, Junior Prefect; Michael Caporal, Head of Temporalities; Joseph Plummer, Secretary; Ronald Baird, Head of Zeal; Stephen Zimmer, Sophomore Prefect; Philip Rathweg, Senior Prefect.

SODALITY

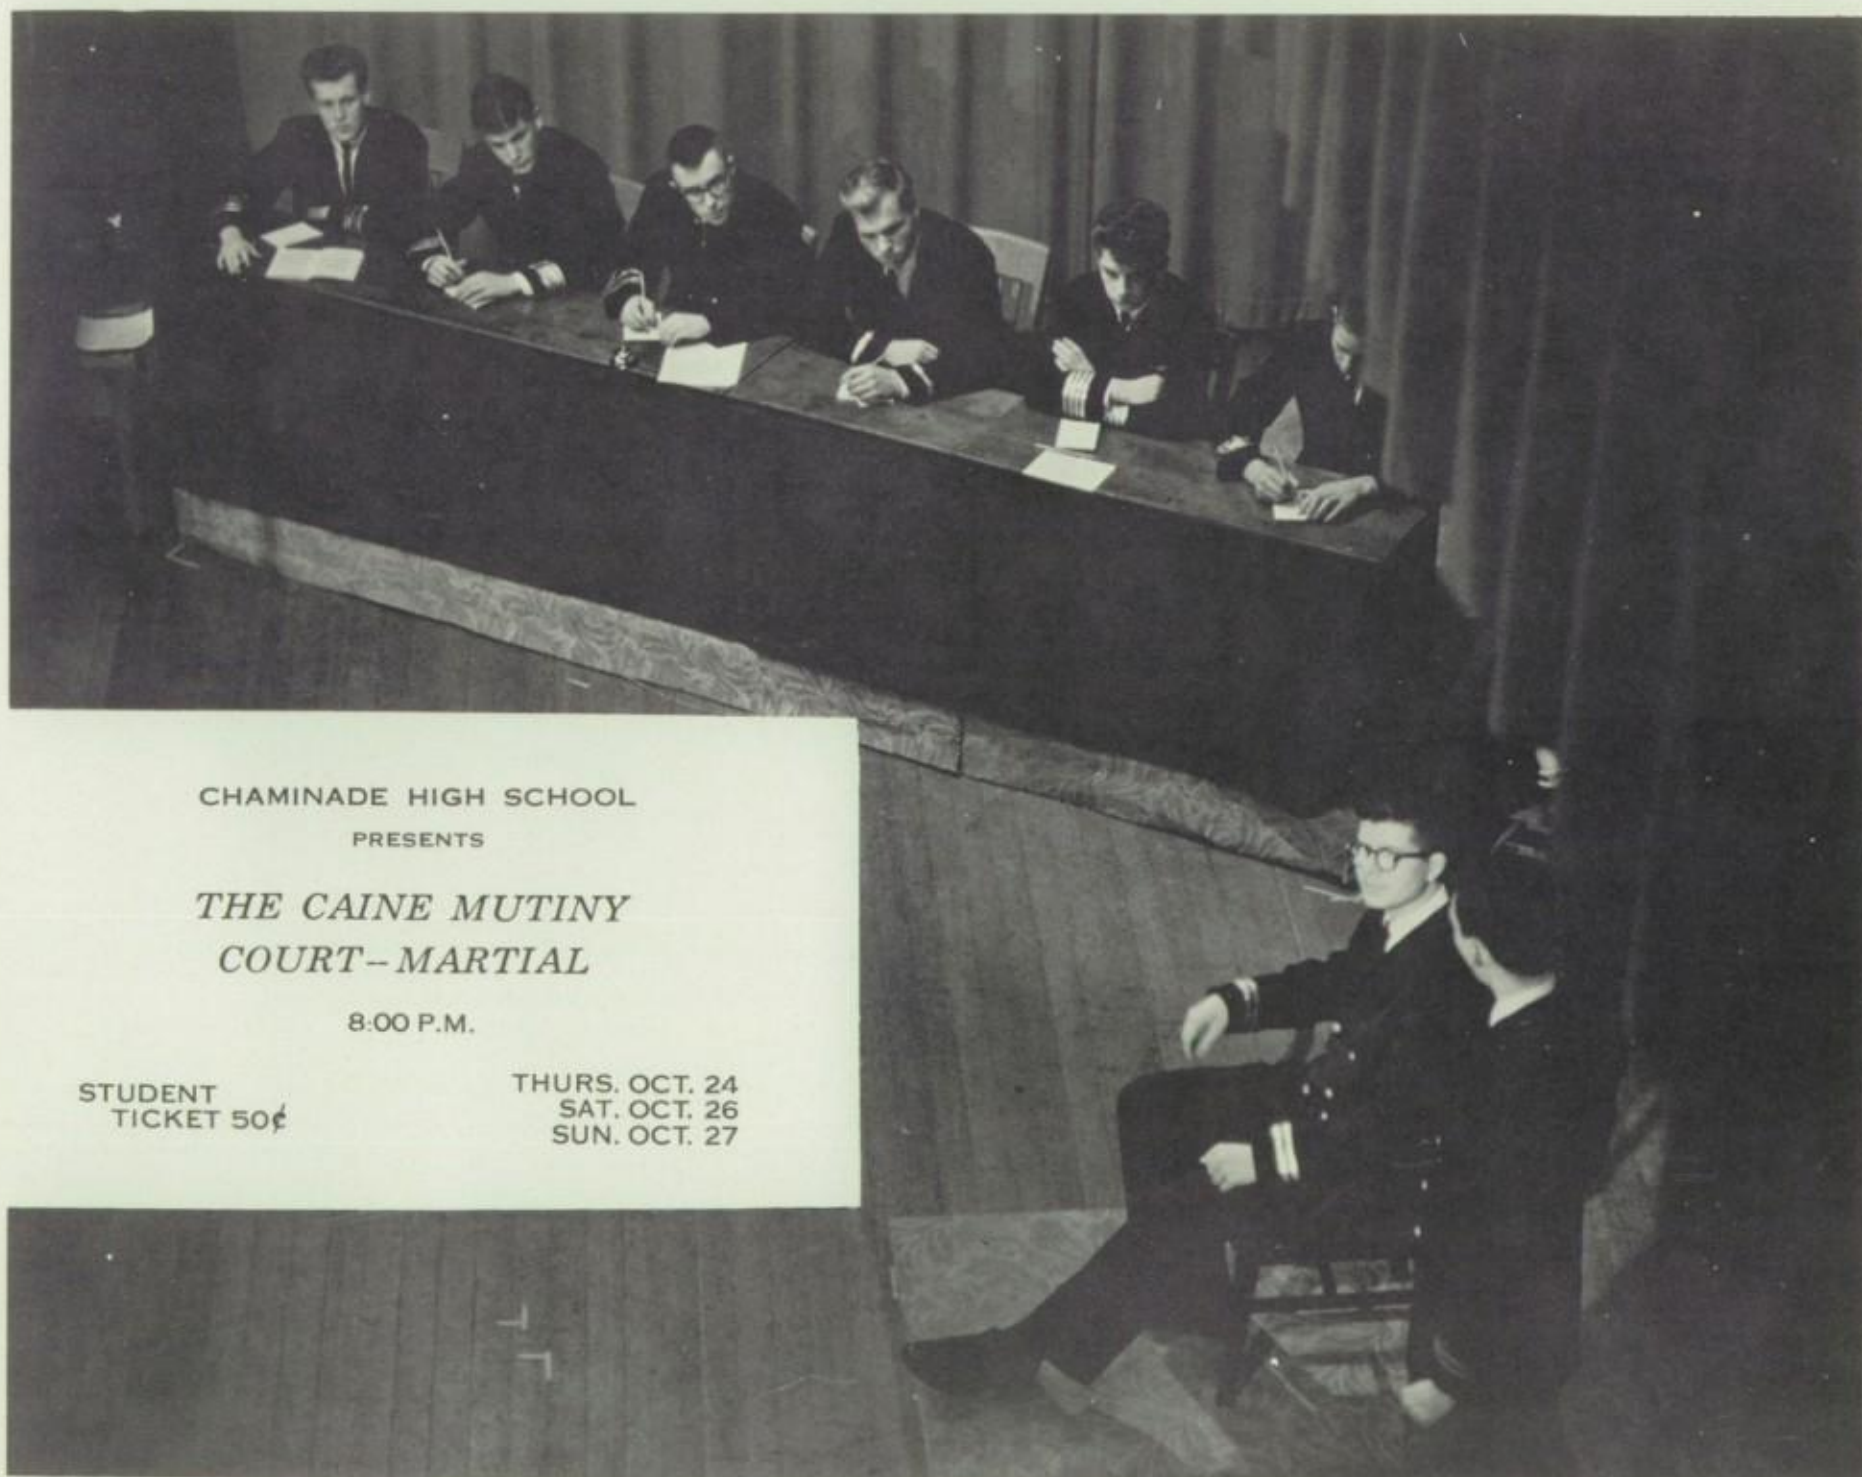

Sodality Director; Fr. Henry Setter, S.M., and Prefect General, Richard Dineen, discuss the success of a recent HOME VISITATION.

Seniors display their avid enthusiasm to dance at the annual Fall Frolic.

Bohn and company await their cue to laugh at a Burgulis original.

FALL FROLIC

Such unusual vitality and exuberance have rarely been exhibited at a Chaminade activity previous to this time.

Fr. Setter points out to the underclassmen the serious social responsibility which they have to the city of Dayton.

RETREAT

Kinsley leads student responses to the late morning dialogue Mass.

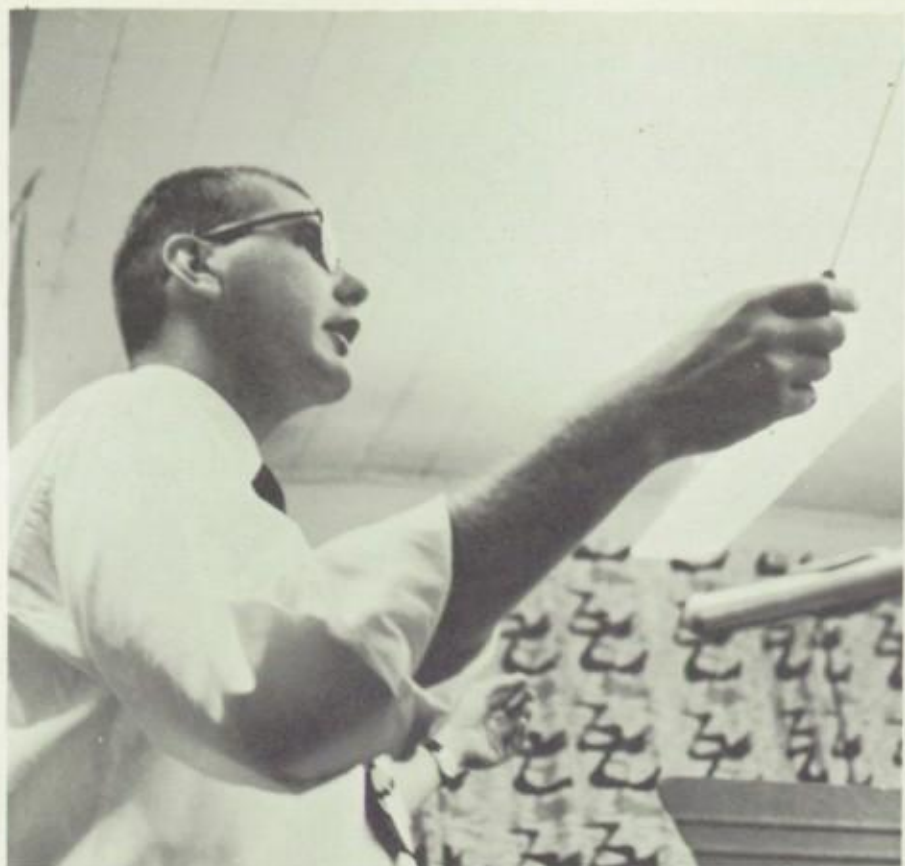

Dave Agee: "You mean we were supposed to play for an away game?"

Band Director, James Wolf, conducts the Varsity Band in the practice of the lively and spirited march RED JACKETS.

Mister Music Man himself, James Wolf, readily produces tunes with everything from accordians to zithers.

Petifort mirrors the intense practice which found rewards in many inter-band challenges.

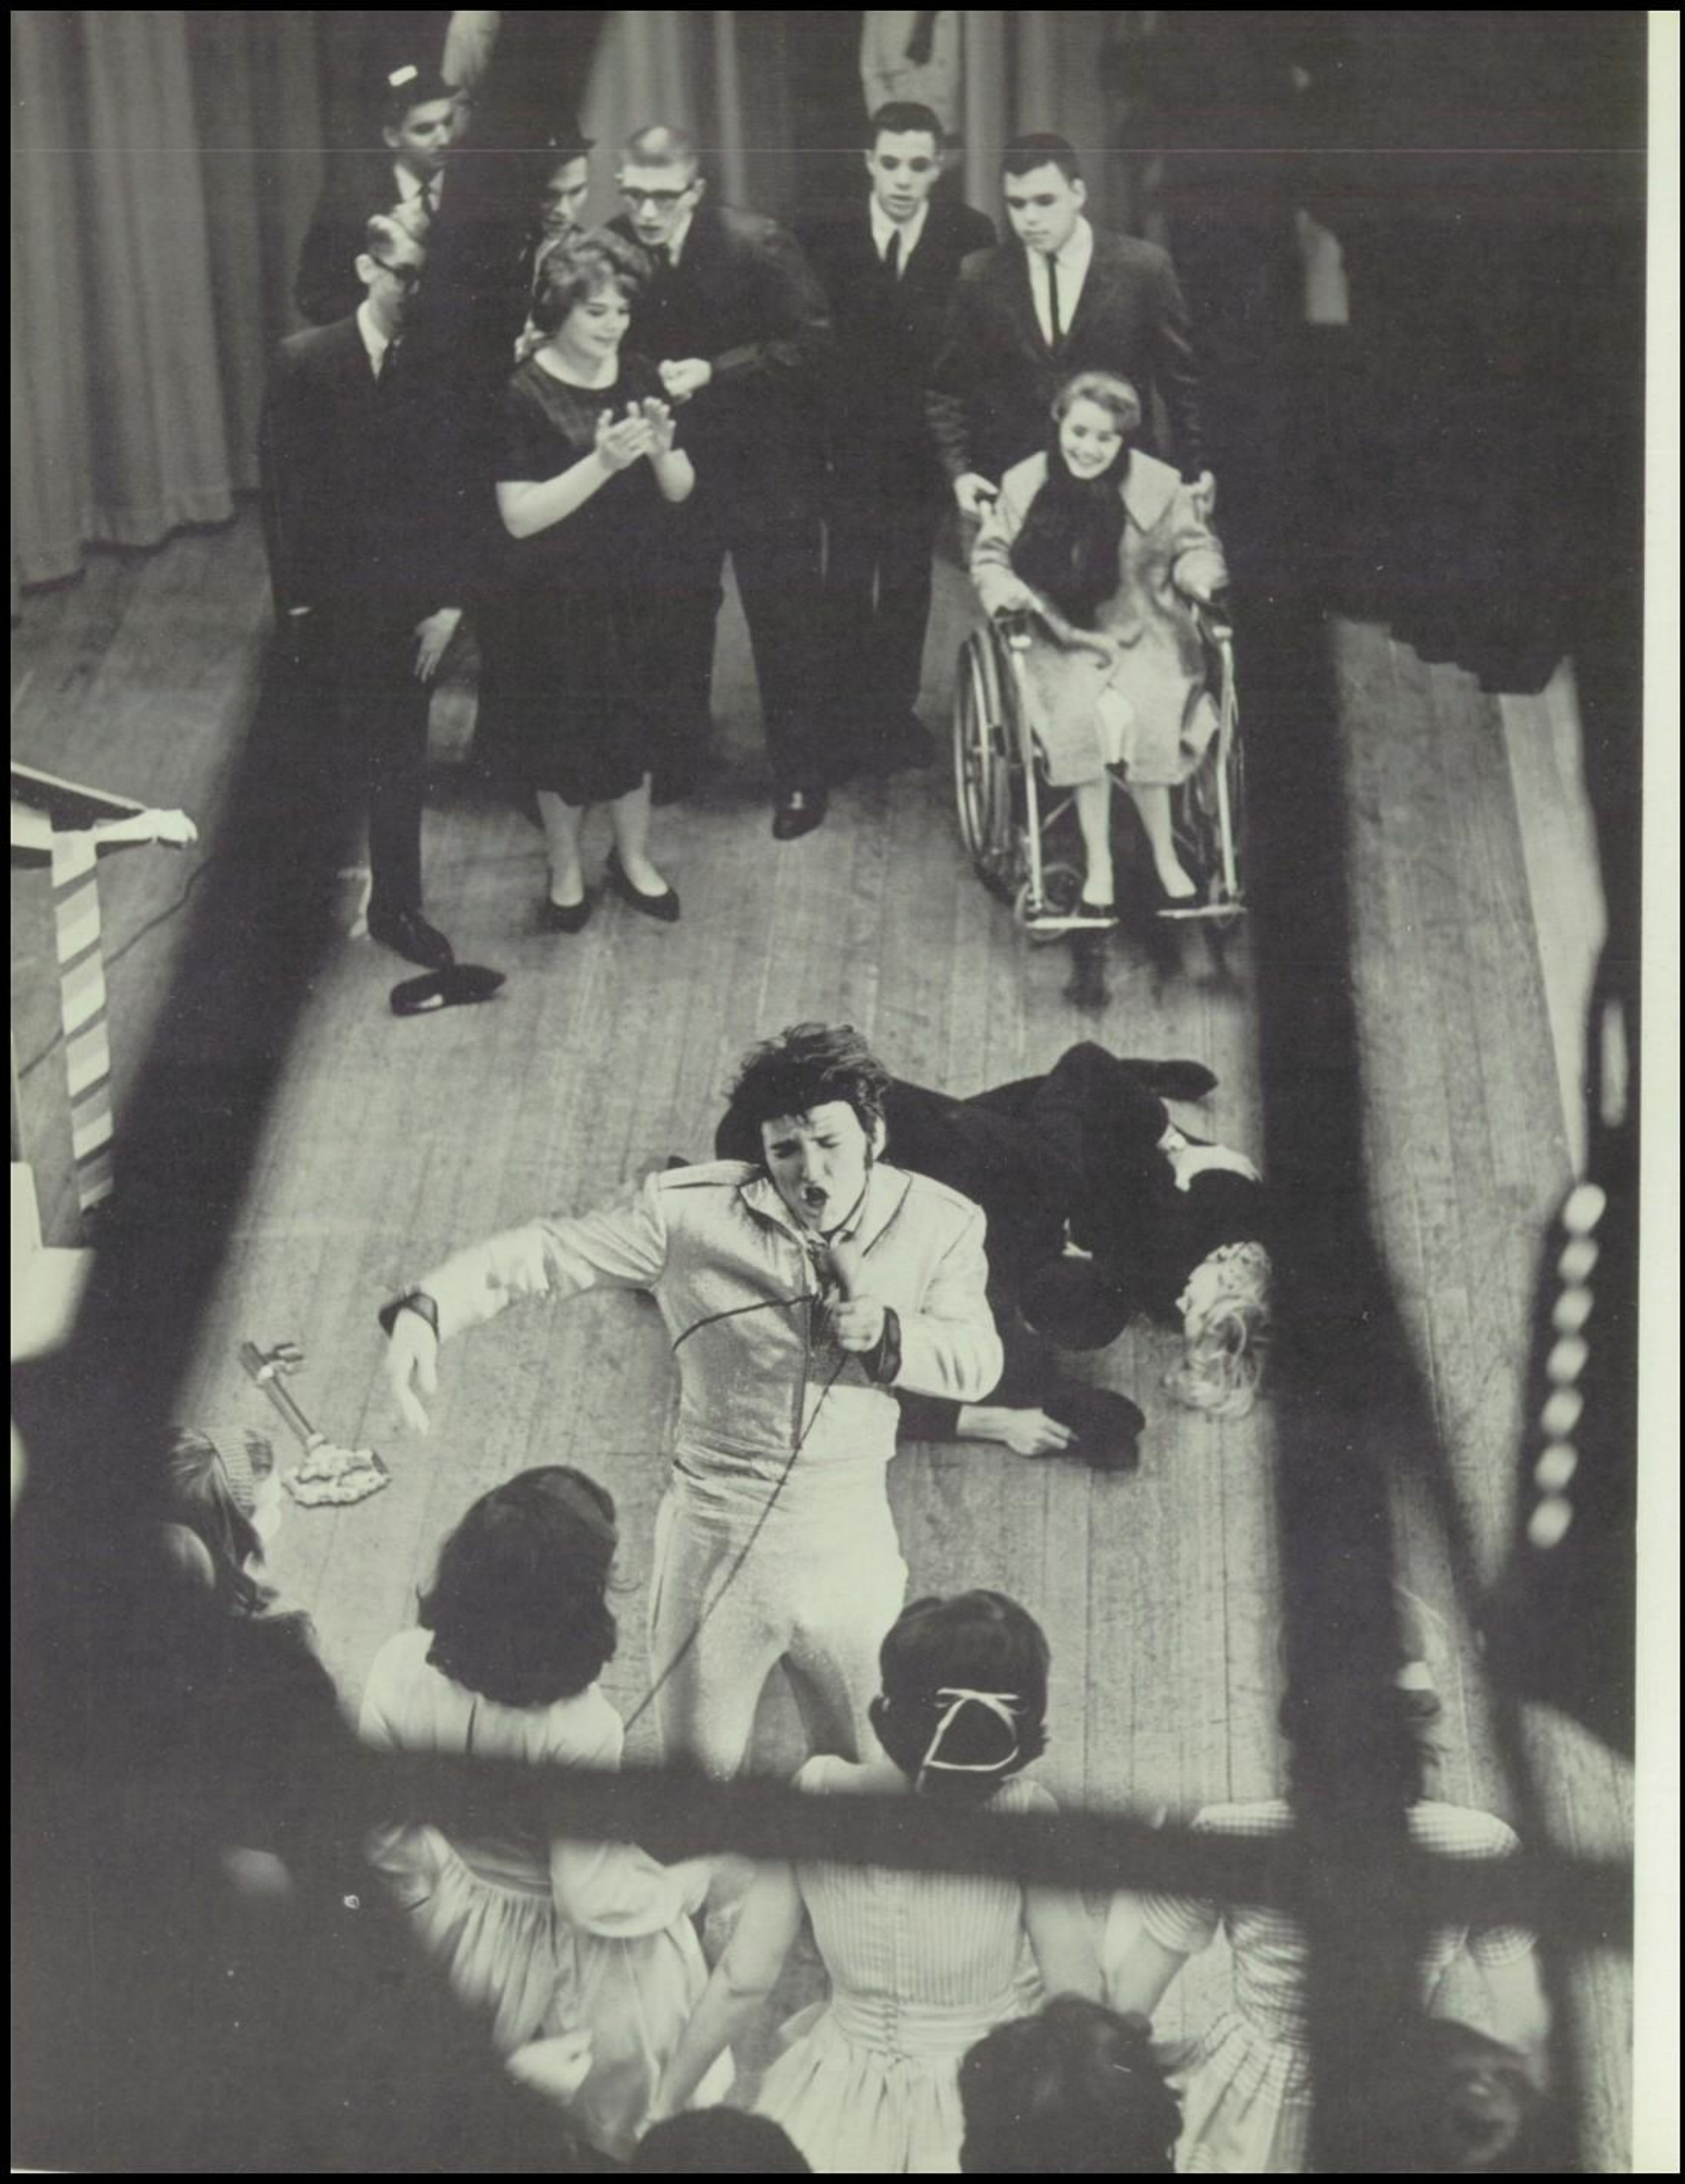

At their theatre appearances they stamp about and shake and, oh dearie me, they just send the joy out to you.

In his first year as head coach, Jim Turvene built his sophomore and junior laden line-up into a city power, following the tradition set by his successor.

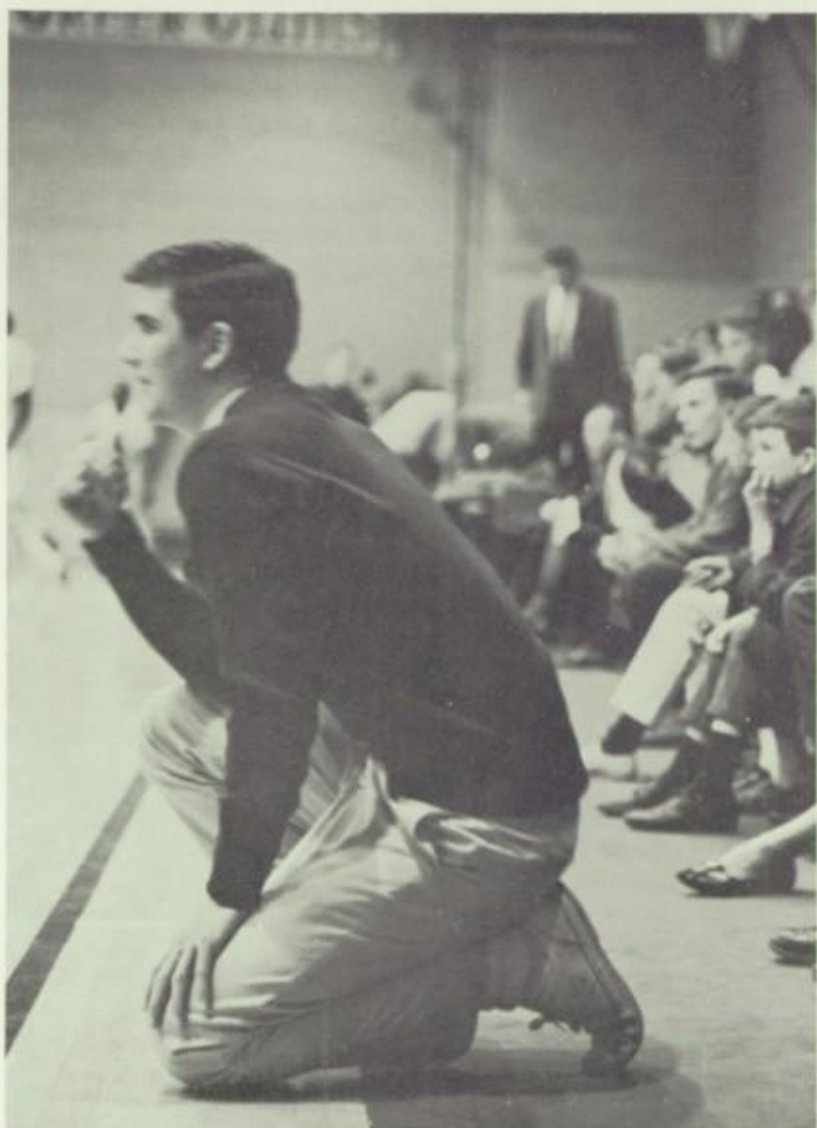

Terry Dunham, the team's leading scorer in '64, connects from fifteen feet away while Thornton and Pate move inside.

 Standing: Denny Treon, Rick Dineen, Gary Arthur, Ron Pate, Paul Jergens, Bob Bruggeman, Jim Siewe.

From the explosive beginning of the opening tip, the game is a picture of perpetual motion until the final burst of action at the end of thirty-two minutes of play.

Jimmy Gottschall scores on a baseline drive.

INTRAMURALS

Feature Editor to Moderator: "Now look, I wrote it, but I ain't gonna peddle it!"

Suspicious confirmed: Juniors spend all their time dreaming up the information they use in their news articles.

Bisch and company participate in their bi-tri-weekly meeting of the "Where's-My-Article?" Club.

Seniors Jim Schaeffer, Feature Editor; Mike Caporal, Sports Editor; Dennis Collins, Editor-in-Chief; and Dave Galvin, News Editor; prepare the next edition of the News for printing.

Junior Editor Carl Klein and Thom Weisser discuss Thom's controversial movie column.

Speech Club Officers and Moderators: R. Gerdes, A. Becker, Bros. Gannon, Klenotic, R. Lienesch, Mr. Lake.

C. Klein exhibits his skill in negative debating.

Chaminade's Debaters: Affirmative Team, Gerdes and Dunsky; Negative Team, Lienesch and Klein.

Chet Andruskewicz attempts levitation of the lectern.

The refined, cultured, and sophisticated members of Chaminade's Speech and Debate Club do not always act this way. Sometimes they are even more dignified.

Robert Lienesch, President of the Chaminade Speech Club, discusses the upcoming Chaminade Invitational Speech Tournament with some attentive club members.

This year's J.C.O.W.A. program was highlighted and climaxed by a mock security council session held at Chaminade by Julianne and Chaminade Students.

After a 4-2 win over Stebbins in the district finals, the Eagles battled their way through both games of the regionals at Cincinnati, defeating favored Taft 5-2 and Piqua 7-2, before a disappointing 8-3 loss to Cleveland Benedictine brought them to a halt.

SENIOR RETREAT

Dom Stolfo selects spiritual reading from the many books available to retreatants.

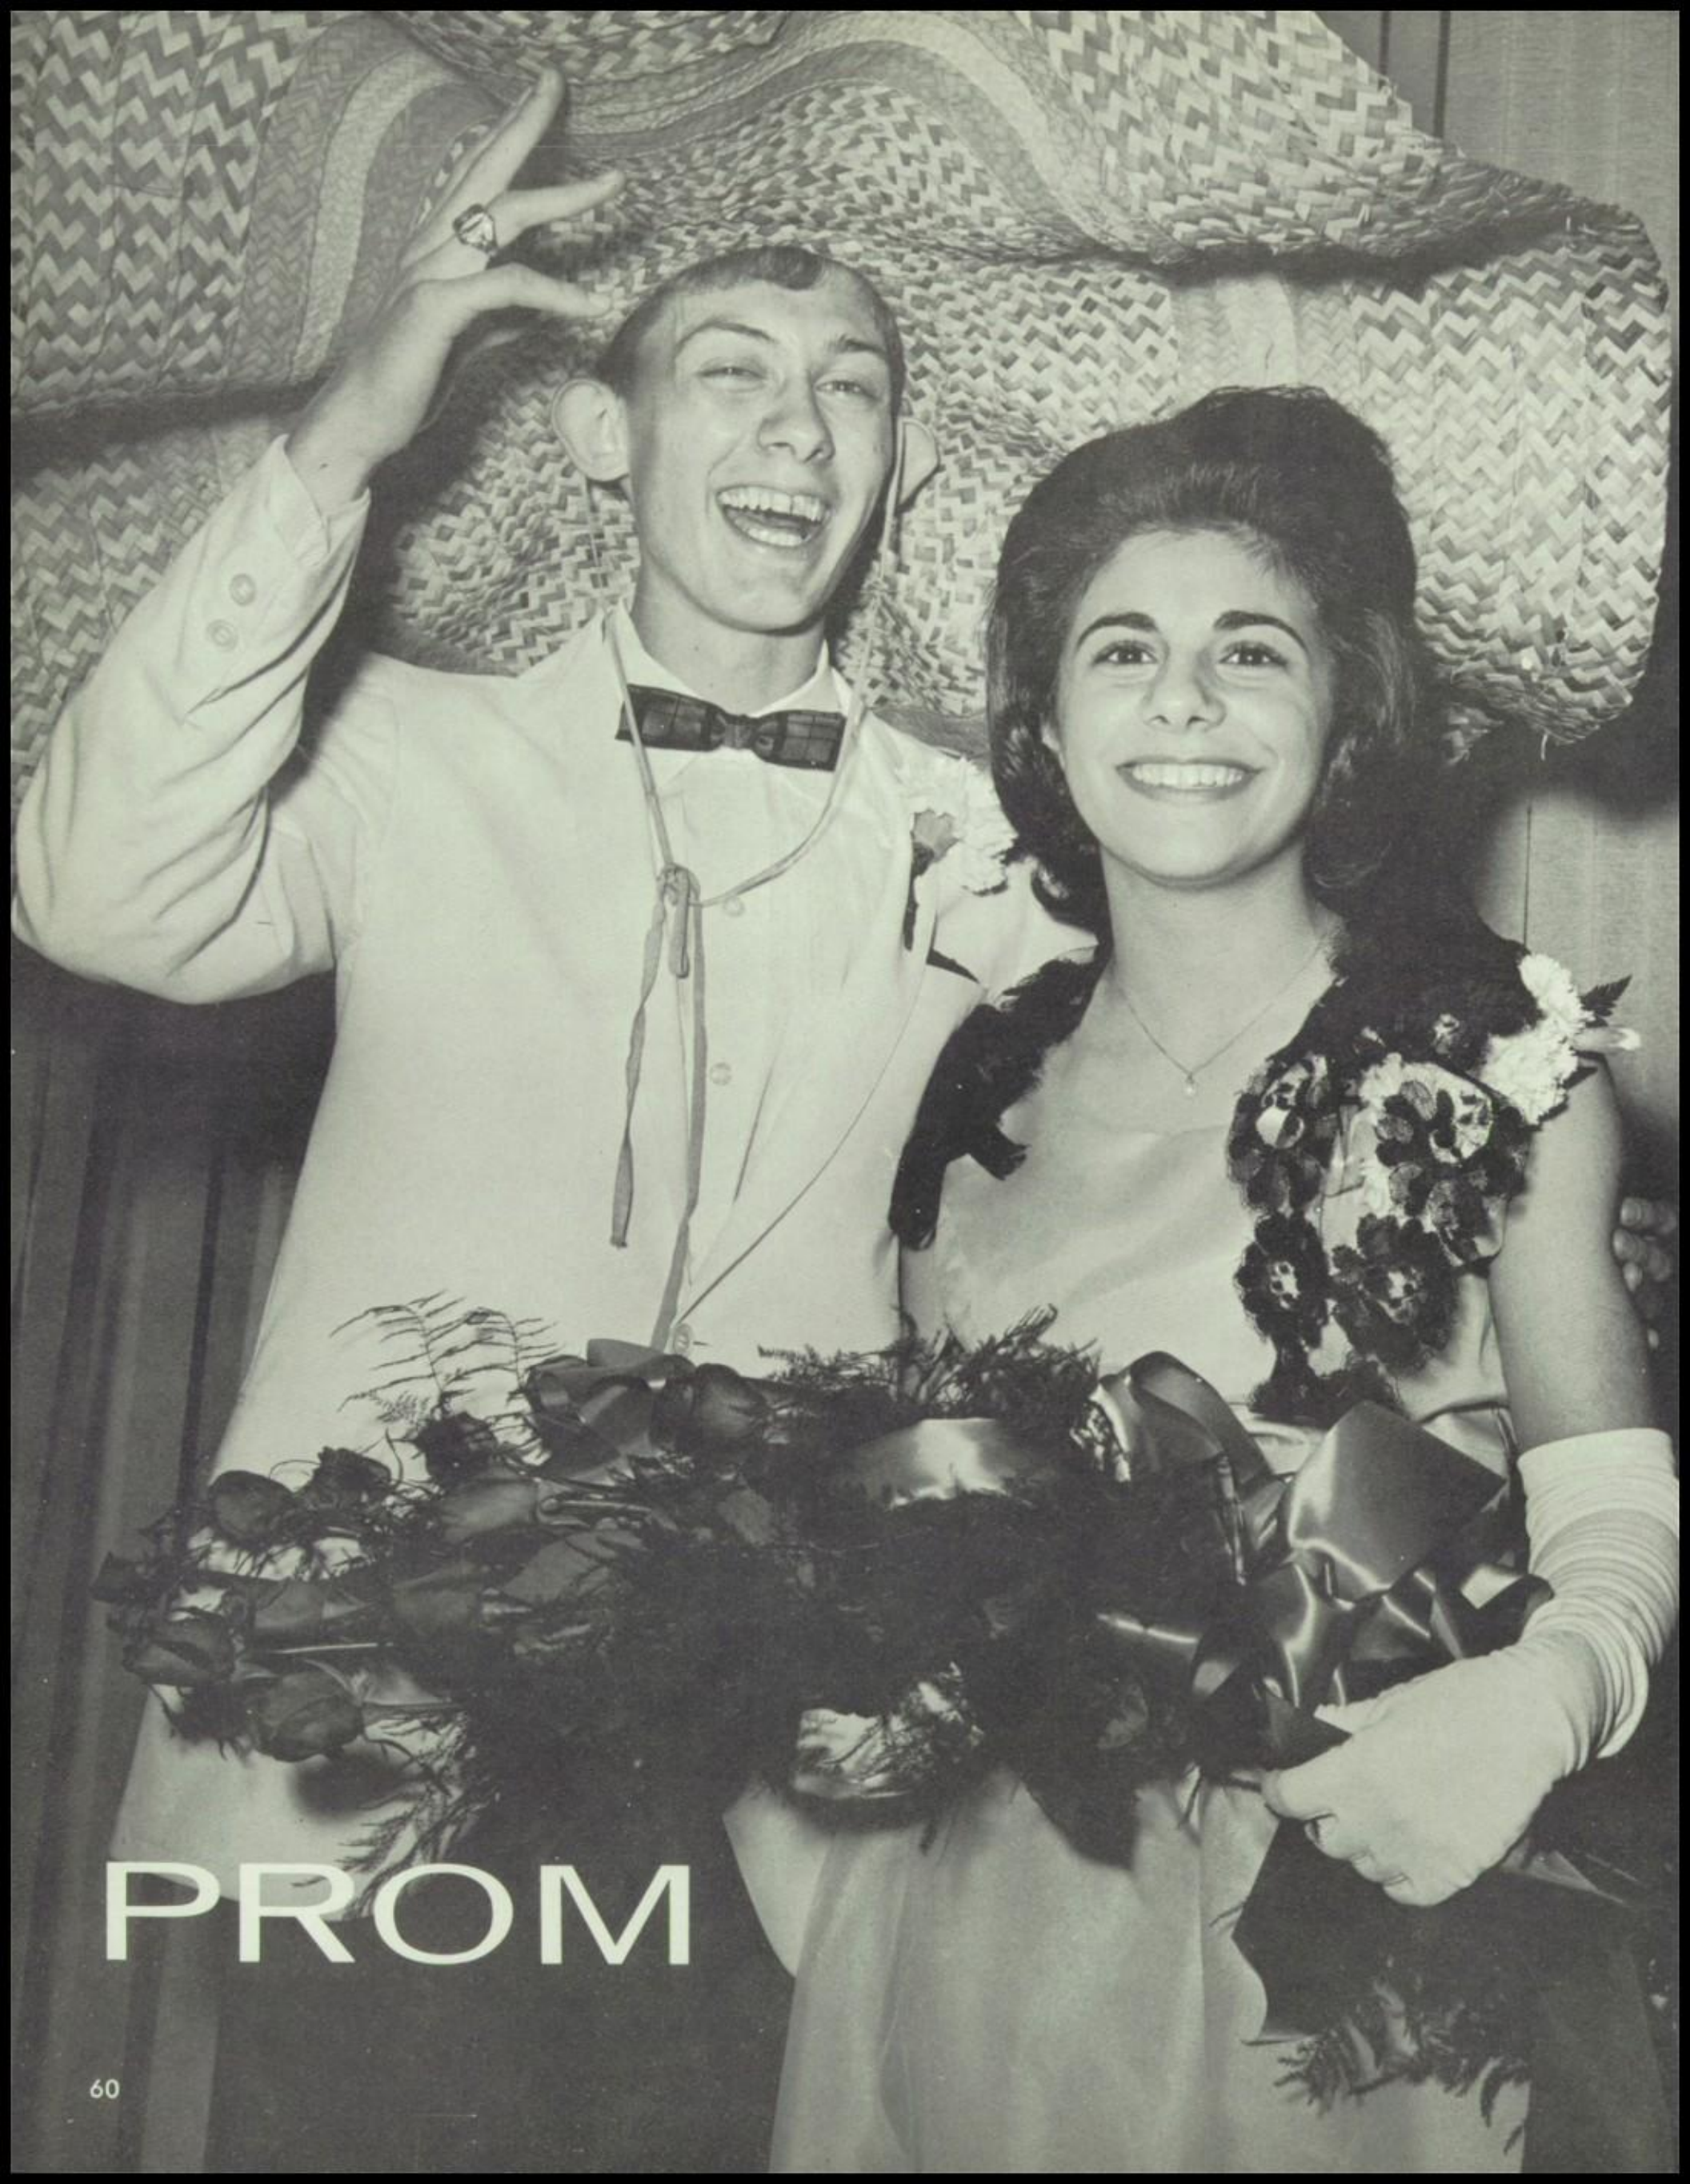

Fr. Rauscher speaks to one of the retreat groups about steady dating.

Mike Dresser follows Father's advice and stays in his room for some quiet reflection.

Jim Schaefer makes the Way of the Cross, kept warm by his renewed fervor.

PROM

"Man, they tried to cut in on us but we fixed 'em!"

On Prom Night few tables could be found at the Tropics or Suttmillers as Chaminade men moved in.

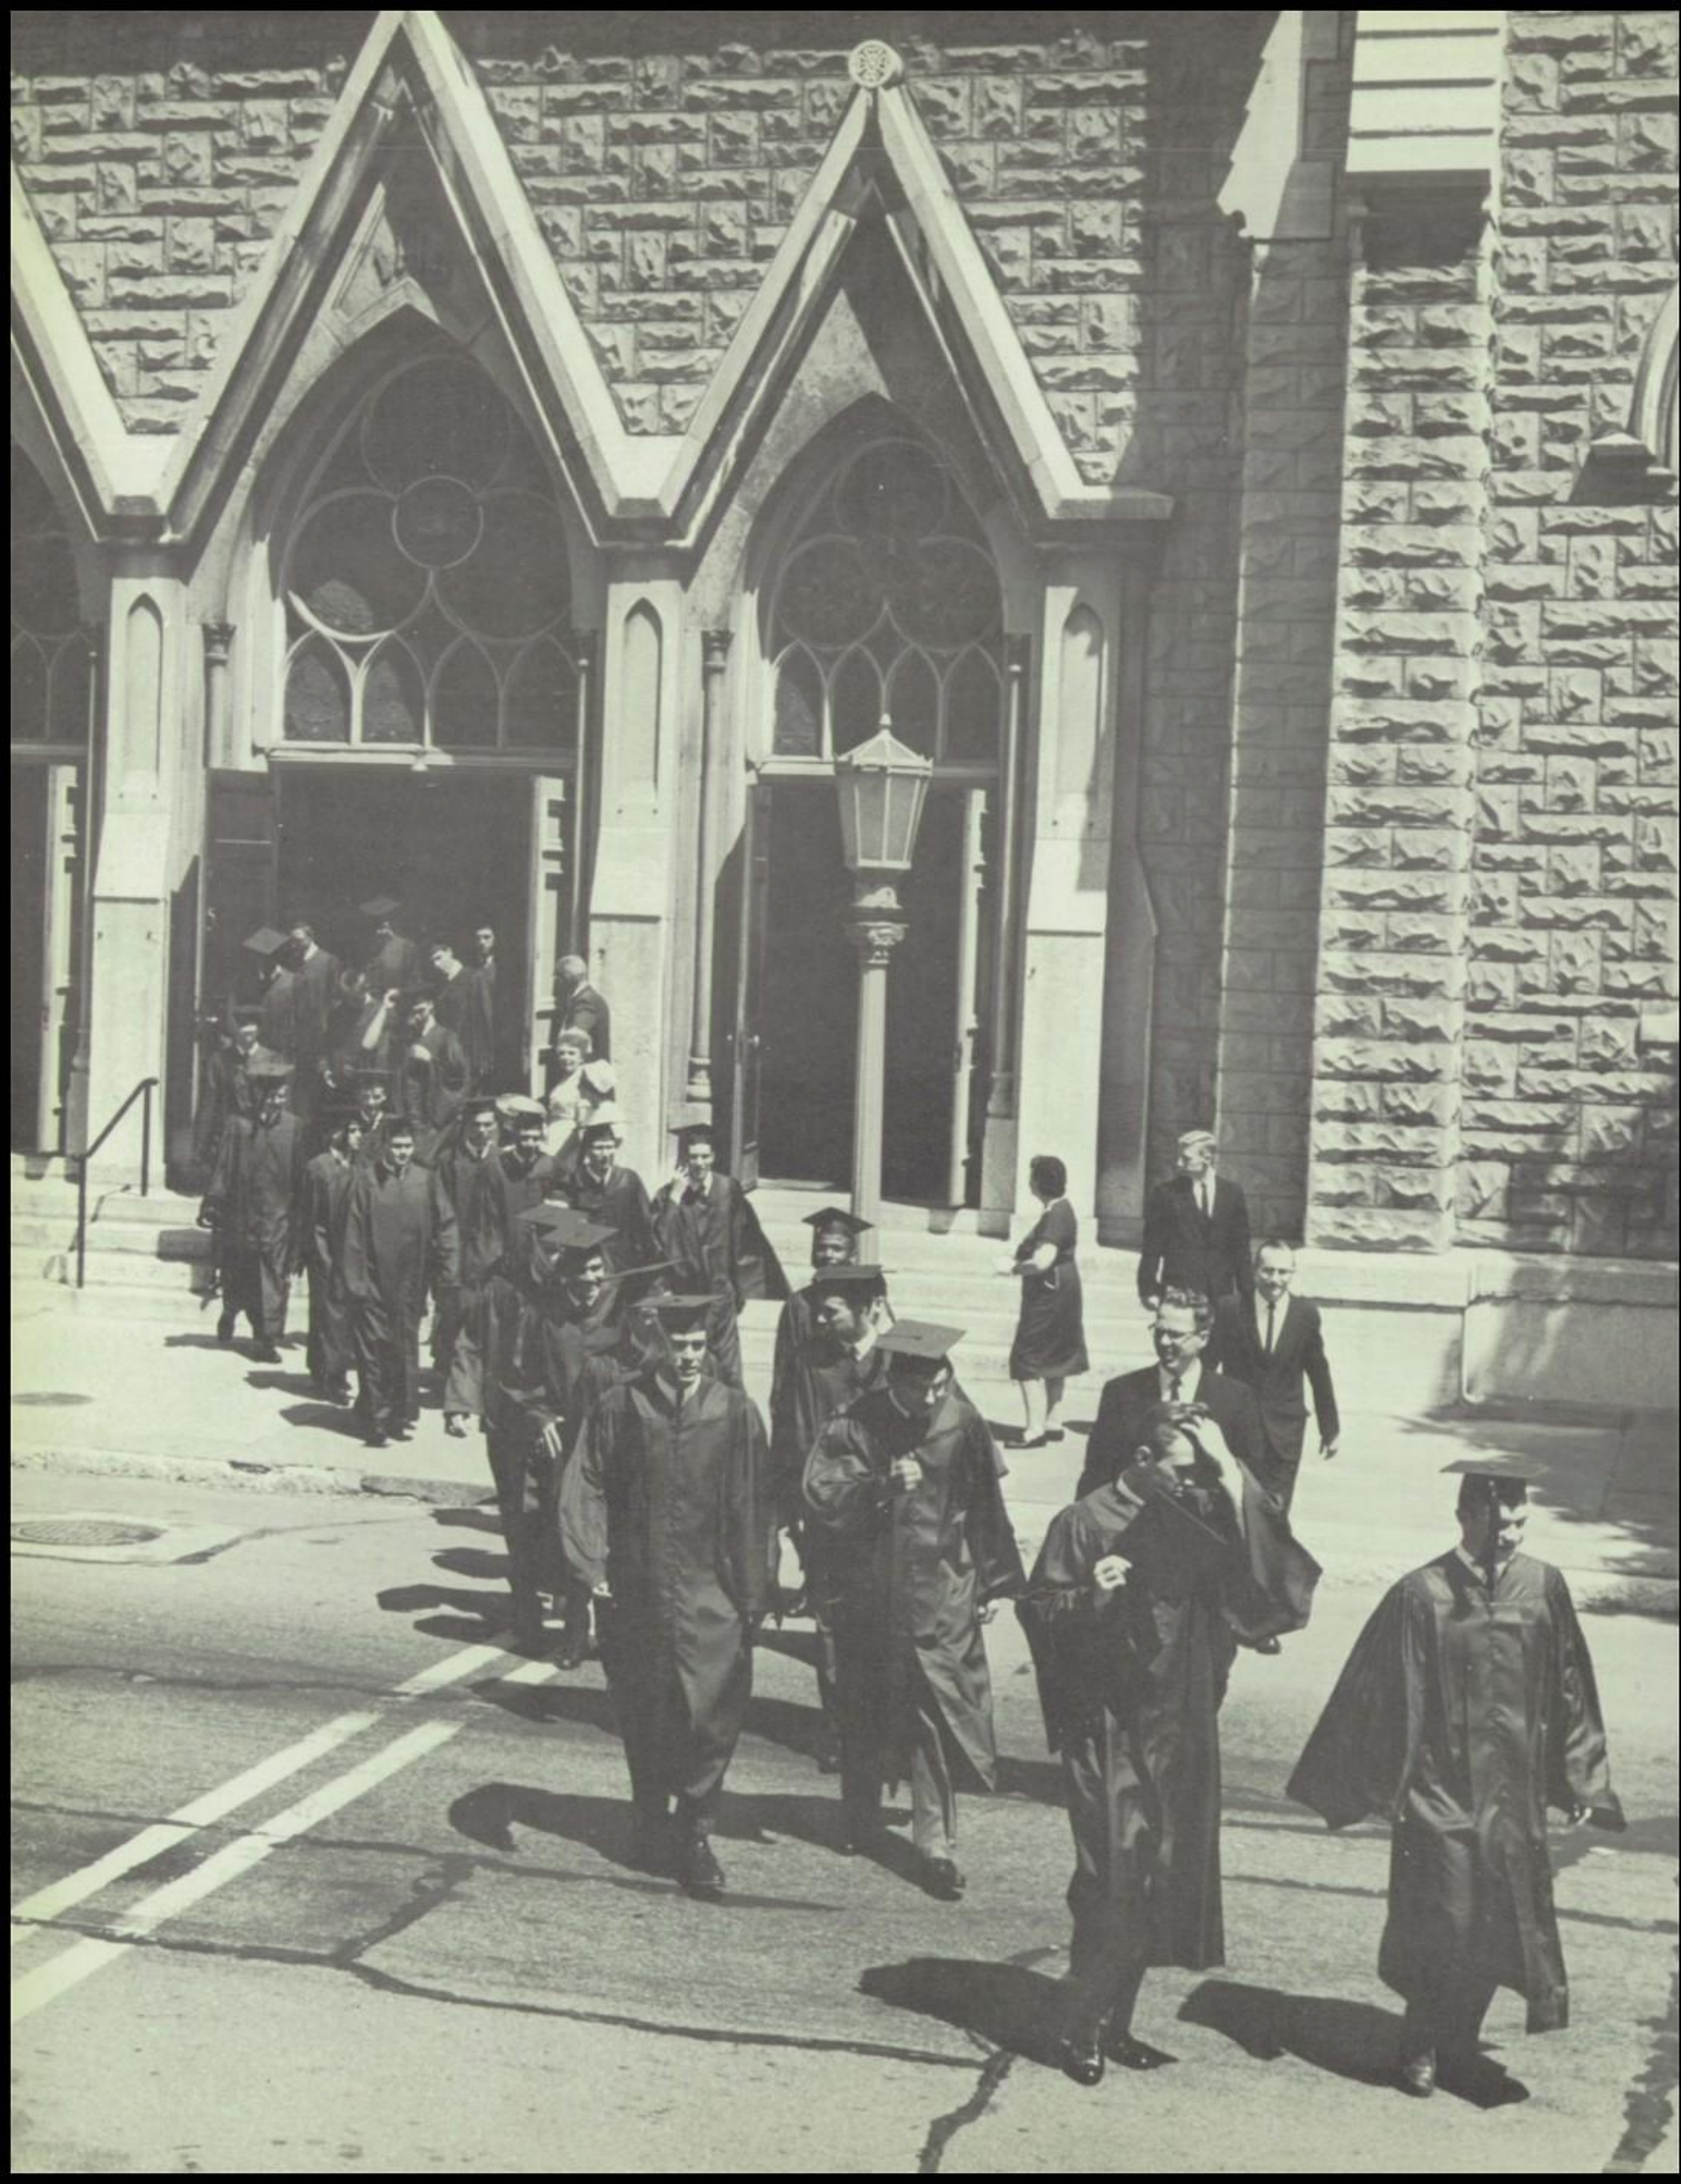

"Huh, sure wish my wife would hurry up and go home!"

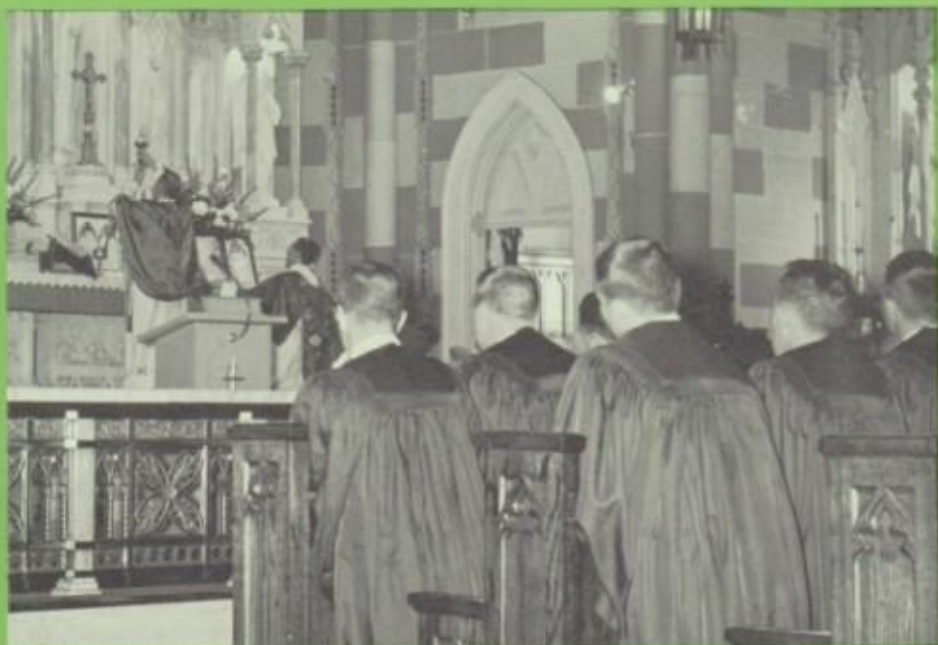

Bernie Anzik and Marty Sullivan pose as royalty along with Joyce Bowling and Dave Agee.

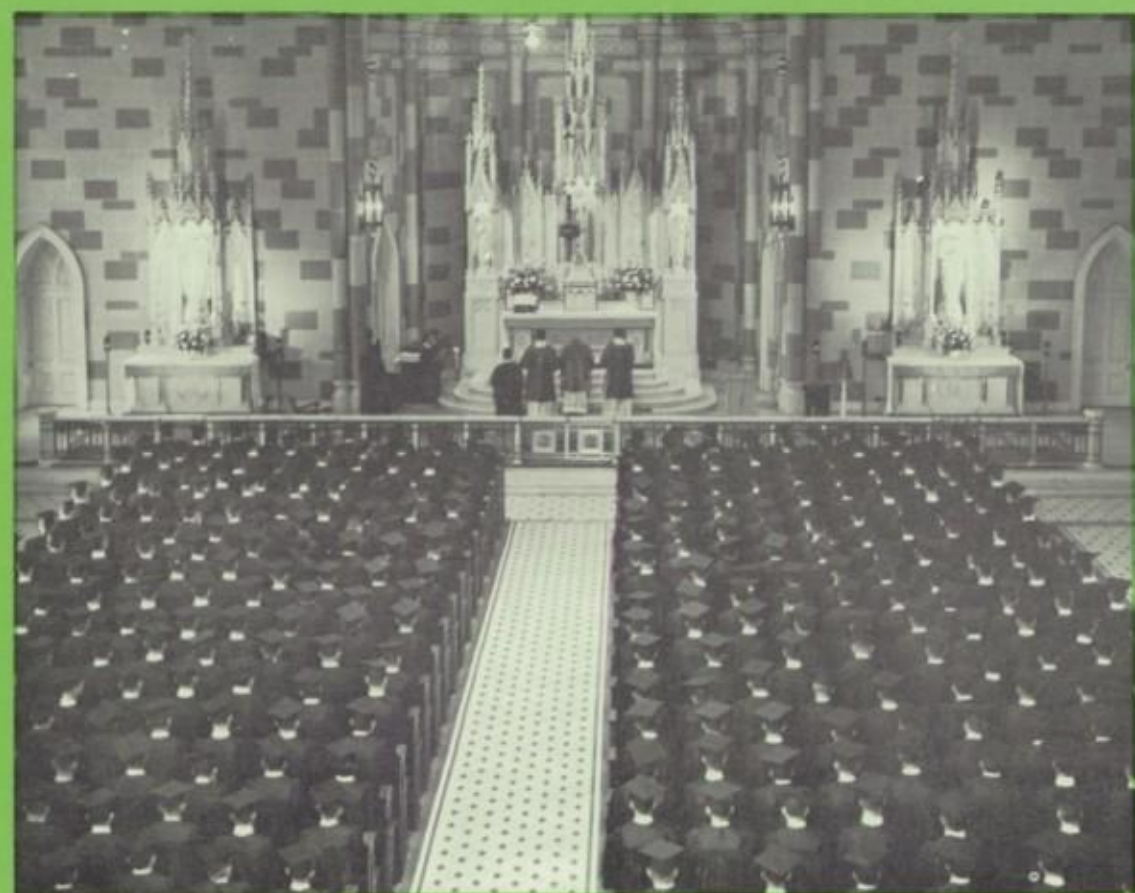

Ron Scheper to his date: "I'm not gonna just stand here and let you take his picture if you're not gonna take mine!"

BACCALAUREATE

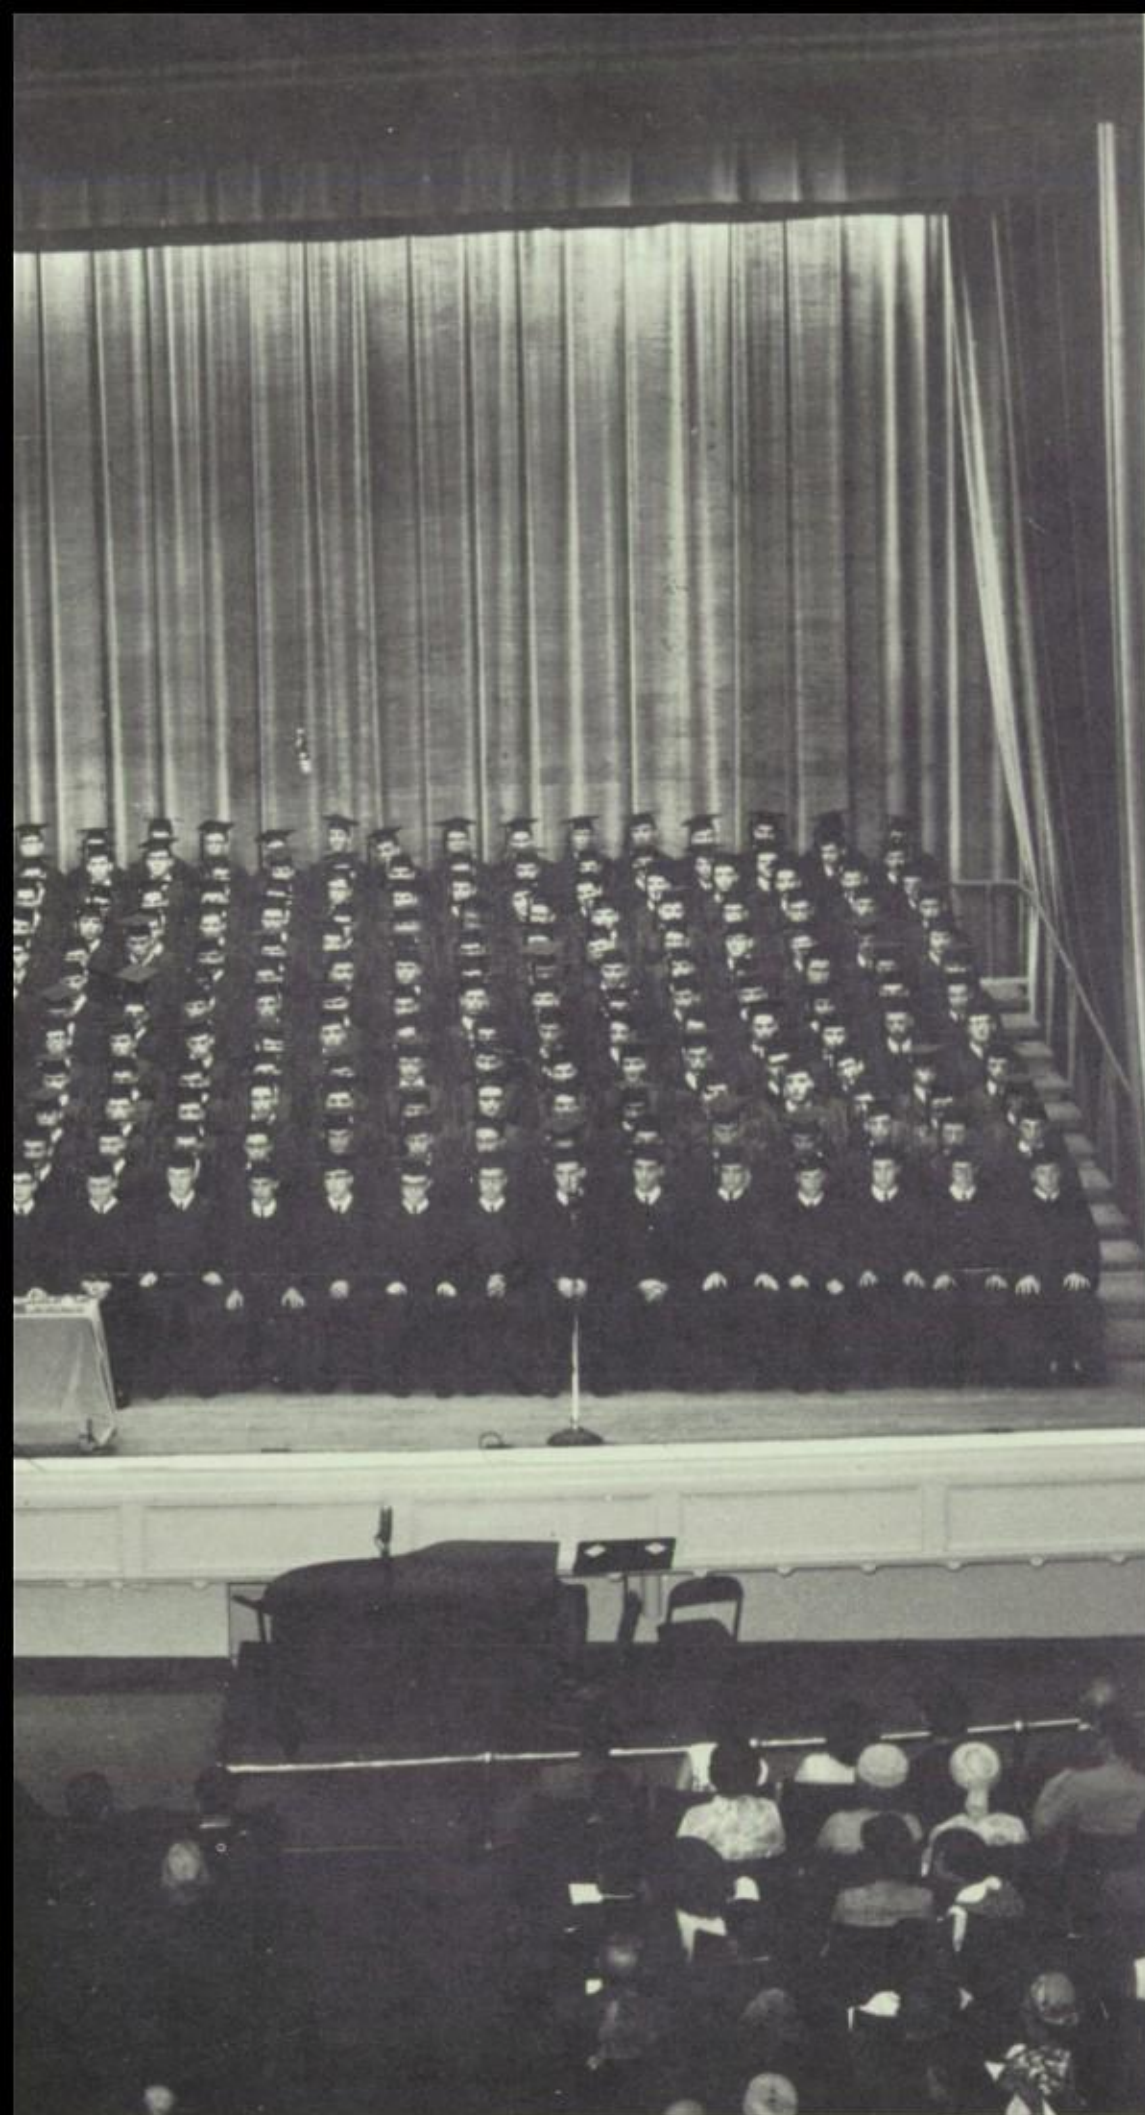

Brother Corbett reads the all important list of the graduating seniors.

Charles Vehorn, Salutatorian, briefly narrates the high school history of the Class of '64.

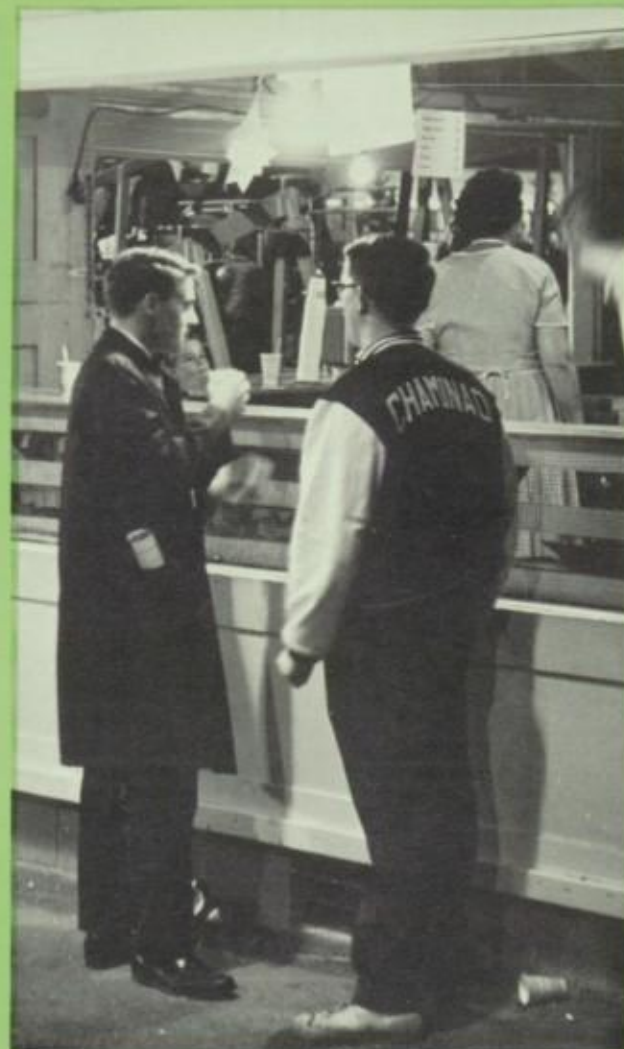

GRADUATION

Ronald Baird accepts a Four Years Honors Medal from Brothers Kelly and McGervey.

William Taylor receives a Gold Medal for excellence in religion from Brother Kelly.

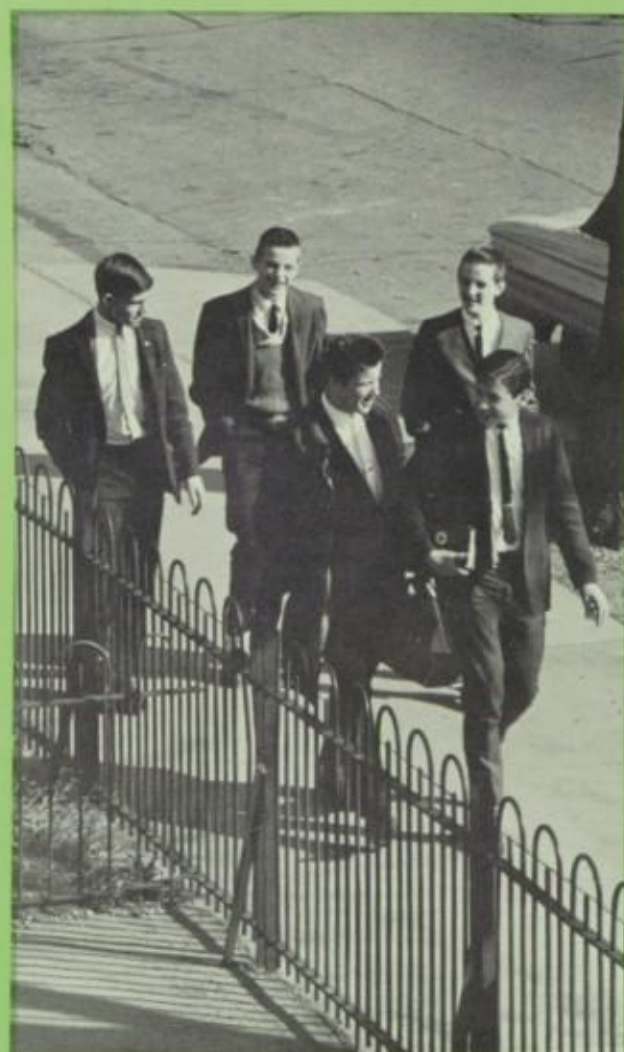

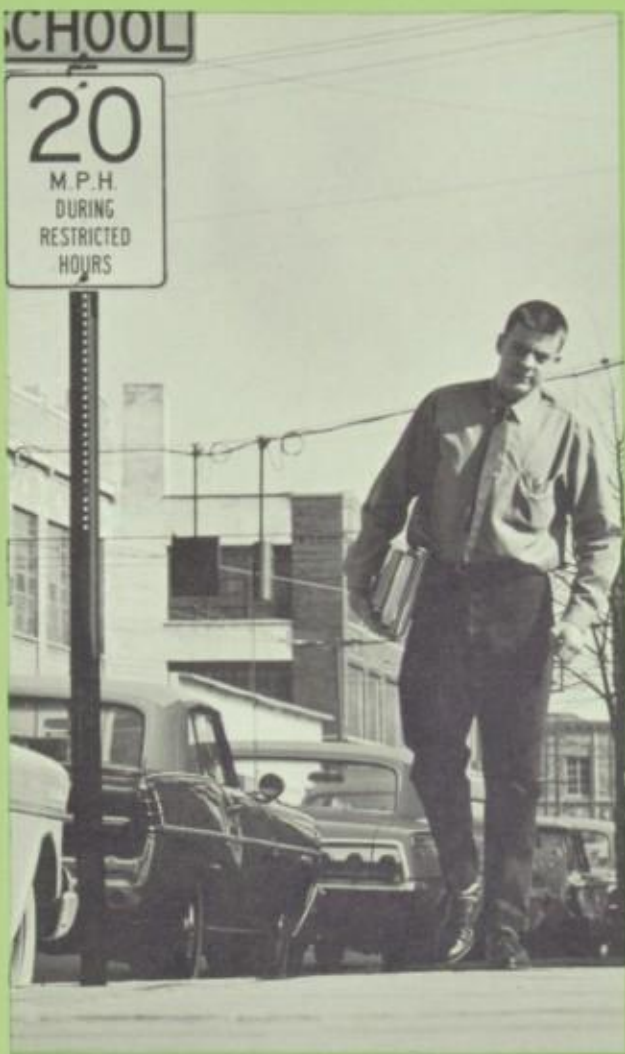

MEN

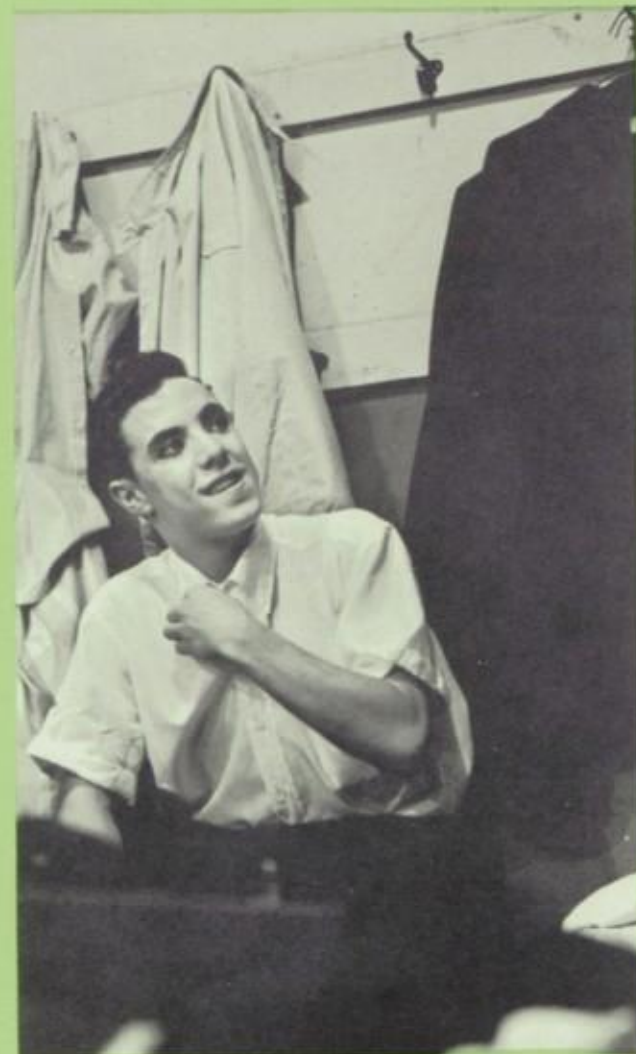

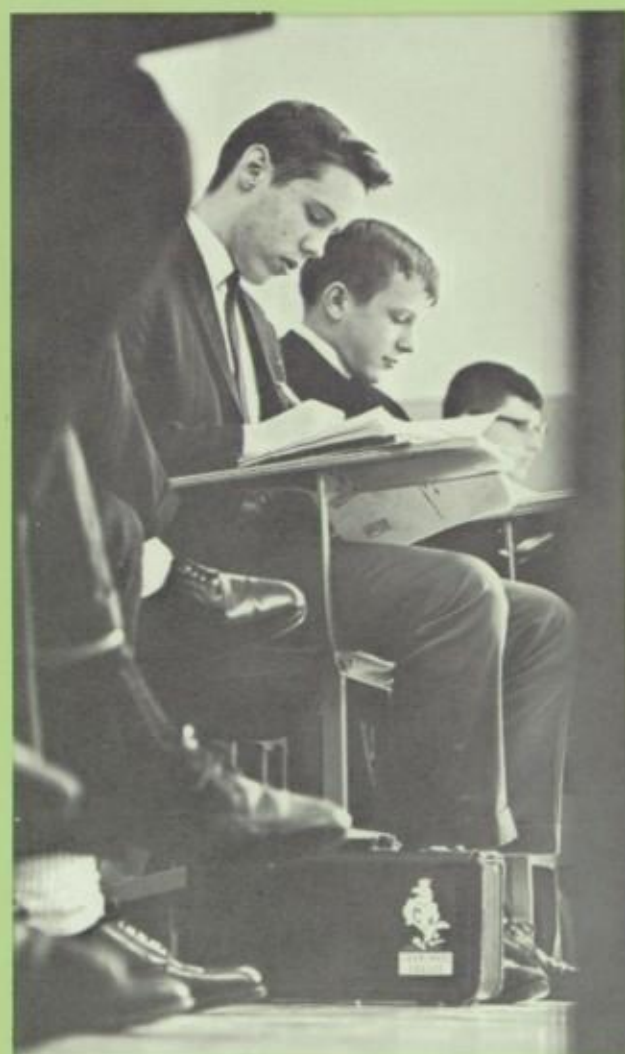

Interest and enthusiasm set the pace as students and faculty commenced the 1963-64 school year. Confidence gained through experience soon steadied their stride, and Chaminade men found that they possessed a Championship Cross Country Team, and outstanding dramatic talent as seen in the CAINE MUTINY COURT MARTIAL. But the painfully long period of the President's assassination slowed the pace, giving new meaning to the Underclass Retreat, and easing the students into the Christmas vacation. The return from the holidays convinced all that, despite prophesy for an off-year, the Eagles had a winning Basketball squad. Finally, several late and long nights in preparation for semester exams capped the first half of the year.

Buoyant and lively, BYE BYE BIRDIE brought all running into the second semester. Soon afterwards, the six short weeks preceding the Festival were filled with raffle returns: much effort making this the most successful fund raising drive yet. For most the highlight of the second semester was a Regional Baseball Championship. And for all, the sprint was nearly finished as the fourth quarter, Spring, and LA DESPEDIA LATINA caused attention to turn from school work to the year's end: Graduation, May 23, 1964.

THOMAS J. DEUER

As students, we work, recreate, and live our lives with a view to a time when we will be established with a career and a family. Fred Wenzel and Tom Deuer worked, recreated, and lived their lives with a view to a time when they would be established with a career and a family also. But their lives and dreams were suspended very quickly: Tom died in the middle of our Junior year, and Fred during the 1963 Summer.

Because they died young, some might say that they died prematurely. But closer to the truth is the view that because they died young, they had done enough in a short period of time to perform the tasks for which they had been created.

Der Kuhpfad, the ordinary way, is often the most difficult. And Tom probably earned his way by performing those tasks which sometimes seem routine, but are really heroic in God's sight. Trying to do well at one's studies, and attention to daily responsibilities are regarded highly in God's judgment of a person.

Perhaps Fred's task was to have his leg amputated (excluding him from the football he had played for a year, and loved very much), and then to have the guts to smile as he hobbled up and down Chaminade's stairs on his cane and wooden leg, always late for class, always smiling.

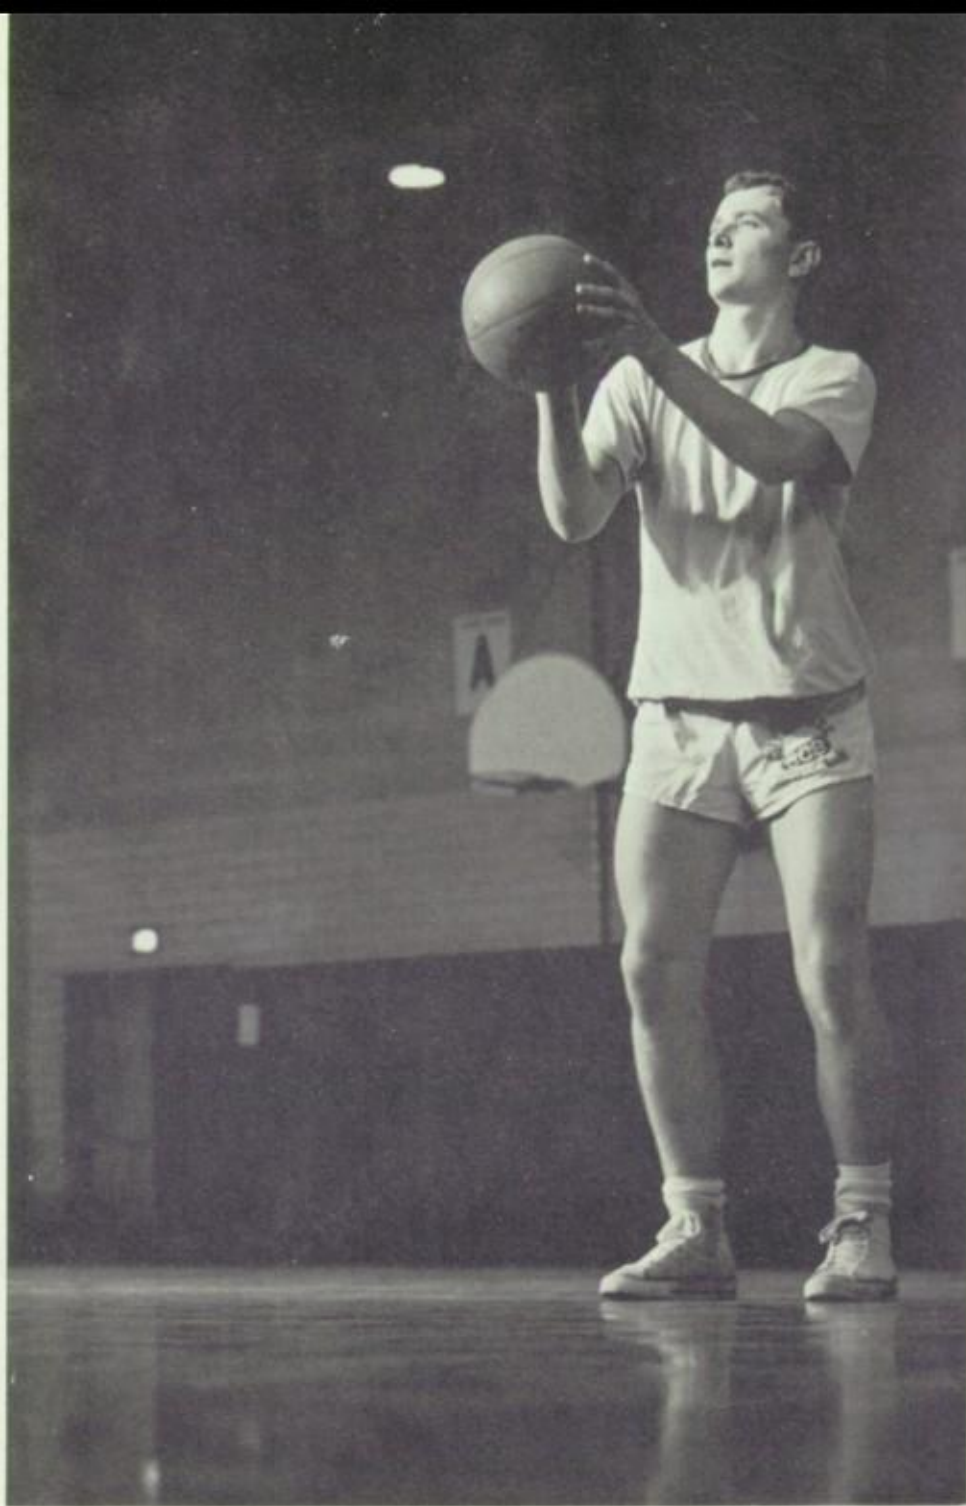

Congratulations to you both from the Class of '64.

Welcome To The Best Years Of Your Life!

IN ENGLEWOOD HILLS the best years of your life are now – if that is what you want them to be.

Our best years are any years into which we pour all the love, the enthusiasm, the living that is in us.

And the Gold Key Homes in Englewood Hills are designed and built to make it easy for your family to make these the best years of your lives.

NEWLYWEDS love the thought and care that have gone into making Gold Key Homes almost completely maintenance-free and reducing housework to an absolute minimum – giving the busy, young family the precious gift of time.

THE GROWING FAMILY finds Englewood's schools and churches and the friendly, relaxed neighborhood of Englewood Hills provide the soil and the climate for sound, straight growth and deep, sustaining roots.

THE MATURE COUPLE – children grown; husband, perhaps, retired – are never at a loss for something to do, never lonely, in the full, rich community life of Englewood Hills where their "Golden Years" can truly be their best years.

Gold Key Homes, our suppliers and associates are truly proud of the planning, care, and quality materials that have made a Gold Key Home in Englewood Hills this area's best home buy – by far.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

THANK YOU:

BROTHER JOSEPH BARRISH, S.M., for your moderator's concern, shown particularly by your offering many professional ideas to help us perfect our own. Your inspiration when it was often needed was one of the greatest assets to the staff and to the '64 EAGLE.

MR. ALBERT MIKULA for doing the work that insured the financial backing of the annual. As business manager your handling of the ad campaign and yearbook sale provided the money needed to publish the book.

LOGAN STUDIO for being there when the pictures were needed. As Chaminade's professional photographers your men gave our staff outstanding pictures with which to work.

MR. PAUL RETRUM for your guidance as the Artmaster representative in helping a staff unaquainted with yearbook production to work out many technical problems.

MR. IRVING LLOYD and KIRK ROWLAND for two days of creative photography that captured the personality of Chaminade in an entirely new light.

JIM SCHOENBERGER for taking the extra burden of ad editor along with your responsibilities as business editor.
